

data of		dentification f sources of exposure		Exposure nventories			Acci
Communicatio 'the why' / storytelling		intersetional			Gender dissagragated data First of all I think visik is very important, v need to make wom visible to the gener and international put because, as others a saying, training is ve			-
Pilot projec research based	ts	sharing good polic		n V an be Sa				omen heral oublic rs are very o is
Success story examples that can form the basis of implementation approaches		prioritising rural and remote					varen	ess.
1 To strengthen the role of women in a their diversity in the sound management of chemicals and wastes.		foster knowledge he the proper use nt management ar		s to e of		Include the groups in the bring them a for our indu invite the v factory man chemical in table. We support to m		e discus t the tak stry it m vorkers agemen dustry a need th
global intergeneratio	3Promote the global tergenerational conversation.		4To achieve concrete and transformative intergenerationa outcomes for girls and women

What actions and activities should be listed in the future Gender Action Plan (GAP)?

Clear guage		include clea implementati steps with KF and measurement indicators	ion Pl's ent	Engage GEF
n role and onsibilities, ope and goals		Easily implementa	ble	funding for national gov fcoal points, sks	The GAP should be multi- disciplinary, and involve key figures from the industry as well.			funding for CSO and other g

What are your experiences with GAPs - what are good examples to learn from, make GAP align wiht key focus areas of the Globla Framework

National gender focal points might be a future step

On the pinboards, you can double-click to create a card/ Post-It, or use an existing one. You can change size, color, typeface, position and shape as you like.

